DJD Rehabilitation Program
 Rehab

The following rehabilitation program consists of exercises that will aid in improving your strength and function. This program is meant to be progressive in nature. You will start with Phase One, in which you will perform the exercises 2 times per day; every other day. After a few weeks, you will notice that the muscles will become stronger and the exercises become easier. At that time, you can start to incorporate Phase Two exercises. After a few weeks of working through those exercises, if you feel ready, Phase Three may be integrated as well.

After you perform your exercises, ensure that you use ice for 20 minutes after each session. This will help with any irritation/inflammation that you may have. If any of the exercises cause pain of your knee or other body part, please do not perform that exercise at this time. Feel free to reach out to our office if you have any questions/concerns.
